D. Vote Required – At a meeting of Members with a quorum present, action may be taken by a vote of at least a majority of Members attending the meeting.

ARTICLE IV.

Board of Directors

Section 1. Powers

Subject to the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws, the corporation and its assets will be managed by its Board of Directors. The Board may hire an Executive Director. In the absence of an Executive Director, the board may hire staff to execute the programs of the organization.

Section 2. Composition

The Board of Directors shall be comprised of at least 8 and no more than nineteen Members (“Directors”), as determined by resolution of the Board.

Section 3. Qualifications of the Board

The organization shall strive for Board composition that reflects cultural, gender, and multi-ethnic diversity, including persons with a broad range of essential business and leadership skills, and represents a balance of the community at large.

Section 4. Tenure

A. Term - Each Director shall serve a term of three years. A director who has served three consecutive full terms shall be ineligible for reelection until one year after the expiration of that director's final term.

B. Election of Directors - A Nominating Committee, which will be comprised of Directors one of whom will be the vice president, and chaired by the immediate past president, will present a slate of Directors at the Annual Meeting. Nominations may also be made from the floor.

Members of the corporation will elect Directors during the Annual Meeting. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors mid-term shall be filled by majority vote of the remaining Directors. When an incoming director is replacing a director leaving prior to the end of their term, the incoming director shall fulfill the unexpired term. All other elections shall be for a three-year term.

C. Attendance - Board members shall be expected to attend all meetings. Excessive absences may be grounds for removal from the Board.

D. Removal - Any Director may be removed by the Board of Directors upon a two-thirds majority vote of all the Directors.

Section 5. Meetings

The Board will meet at least quarterly on such date, time, and place as determined by the Board. Board Meetings are open to members of the organization. The Board may choose to enter into an executive session when addressing personnel issues and other issues such as real estate or litigation.

A. A special meeting of the Board may be held on a date at least ten days after a notice of such meeting is sent to the Directors specifying the date, time, place, and purpose of such a meeting. The giving of such notice may be waived by unanimous vote of the Directors. In select cases, the Board may choose to utilize conference calls or web-based conferences in place of face-to-face meetings.

B. Quorum - Attendance at a meeting by at least a majority of the Directors will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

C. Vote Required - Action may be taken at a meeting at which a quorum is present with a majority vote except where otherwise specified in the bylaws. In exceptional cases, the Board may take action without a meeting by notifying all Directors and obtaining the approval of the majority of Directors.

Section 6. Ex Officio

The Board of Directors may by majority vote add up to five (5) ex officio members to the board. These ex officio board members will not be able to vote, but may advise the board on issues.

ARTICLE V.

Officers

Section 1. Election

The Officers of the corporation will be elected by the Board from current Board members at a board meeting prior to the annual meeting. Officers will be Immediate Past President, President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary. The Board may elect additional officers if the need arises.

Section 2. Roles
